

STEVEN O'NEIL

Non-Profit Professional | Community Advocate | Family Advocate

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Steven O'Neil is a committed Parent Educator with the Augusta Partnership for Children, where he supports families and helps strengthen the foundation children need to grow and thrive. Born and raised in Augusta, Georgia, Steven has a deep connection to the community that shaped him.

After graduating from the Academy of Richmond County, Steven earned a degree in Manufacturing from Georgia Southern University. While his career began in technical and industrial environments, his passion for people, service, and mentorship led him to family and community support.

In his role, Steven empowers parents through practical guidance, compassionate support, and access to essential resources. Whether facilitating classes, meeting with parents one-on-one, or helping families navigate challenges, he is known for his patience, empathy, and ability to make others feel heard, respected, and understood.

Steven believes that supporting parents is one of the most meaningful ways to impact a child's well-being and future success. Guided by service and compassion, he continues to build a legacy rooted in stronger families, healthier relationships, and brighter futures for children across Augusta.
