

CHRISTIE STEWART

Director of Operations | U.S. Army Veteran | Lifelong Community Advocate

BIOGRAPHY

Ms. Christie Stewart is a proud Georgia native, United States Army veteran, and dedicated community leader with over 27 years of service in the United States Armed Forces. Her military career reflects a lifelong commitment to leadership, discipline, and service to others.

Raised in a family and church community where service was a way of life, Christie learned early the importance of showing up for others and caring for the community. These values shaped her character and continue to guide how she leads, serves, and supports those around her.

Throughout her military career, Christie remained committed to community engagement wherever she was stationed, volunteering her time, supporting outreach efforts, and making a positive impact in the lives of others.

Today, she continues that mission through her work leading operations for the Manhood & Womanhood Tour, helping ensure the organization's programs, outreach, and community efforts are carried out with purpose and excellence.

With more than 20 years of active community involvement, Christie remains passionate about giving back, leading by example, and helping build stronger, more caring communities. Her life's work reflects service beyond the uniform, rooted in faith, compassion, and a deep commitment to making a lasting difference.
