

DAVID MEW

Founder & Executive Director | U.S. Army Veteran | Community Activist

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. David Mew is a proud Georgia native, United States Army veteran, and founder of the Manhood & Womanhood Tour. With 20 years of honorable military service, David has served in diverse roles that strengthened his leadership, adaptability, and lifelong commitment to serving others.

He began his Army career as a truck driver, transporting tanks and critical supplies across Iraq during the Iraq War. He later transitioned into information technology, managing helpdesk operations and supporting enterprise network systems before serving as an Information Protection Technician, where he helped safeguard Army networks from cyber threats. Service has always been at the center of David's life.

Since enlisting in 2003, he has volunteered with homeless shelters, food pantries, and community programs across the East Coast. While stationed in the DMV region, he also helped launch a nonprofit initiative that brought political and life-skills discussions into local barbershops to promote education, empowerment, and community connection.

Through the Manhood & Womanhood Tour, David continues his mission of empowering individuals, strengthening families, and building stronger communities. Guided by leadership, service, and a passion for helping others, he remains committed to creating safer, more compassionate, and purpose-driven communities.
