

DR. MEROFIER MARSHALL

Educator | Mentor | Community Advocate

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Merofier Marshall is a dedicated educator with more than 28 years of classroom experience. She earned her doctoral degree in education from South Carolina State University and has spent her career enriching and developing young minds across a range of grade levels. Known for her warm, student-centered approach, Dr. Marshall combines deep content knowledge with a commitment to differentiated instruction and culturally responsive teaching.

Dr. Marshall's years of teaching, nurturing, and growing students academically climaxed when she was elected by her peers at The Performance Learning Center as the Teacher of the Year of 2025.

A leader beyond the classroom, she is actively involved in her church—teaching Children's Church and Sunday School and serving on the usher board and contributes to the wider community through ongoing volunteer service.

Dr. Marshall's work reflects a firm belief that education and community engagement together create stronger futures for students and families.
